BOYNE CAPITAL PARTNERS, LLC ACQUIRES
FULCRUM IT SERVICES COMPANY, LLC

Manassas, VA, April 15, 2010 – Boyne Capital Partners, LLC announced today that they have teamed with Grindstone Partners, LLC and company management and acquired all of the outstanding shares of Fulcrum IT Services Company, LLC (“Fulcrum IT or the “Company”). Fulcrum IT, founded in 1987, is a Manassas, VA, based company which provides information technology (“IT”) services to the Federal government.

Fulcrum IT is a focused IT Federal services business providing engineering services to the intelligence community, various federal agencies and prime government contractors. Fulcrum IT provides mission critical services in five distinct categories: (i) enterprise services, (ii) applications development, (iii) data management and storage, (iv) information assurance and security and (v) intelligence analysis. All current management will remain at the Company, with Mr. Jeffrey Handy continuing to serve as the President and CEO and Mr. Carroll Johnson as the CFO.

“We continue to grow our customer list of leading intelligence agencies and cutting edge civilian agencies, and we will be able to bring even greater resources to our customers”, said Mr. Handy. Our new investors will help us drive new growth strategies and new service capabilities and resources and we’re very excited about the partnership”, added Handy.

Mr. Derek McDowell, Managing Partner of Boyne Capital said, “Fulcrum IT has built a terrific legacy of providing top notch service and delivery to its customers. The management team is very seasoned and has built a substantial organization serving some of the most prominent agencies of the government. We are very excited to partner with Jeff and Carroll to support their initiatives for the business.”

TD Bank provided the senior debt financing for the transaction. White & Case, LLP advised Boyne Grindstone, LLC in the transaction.
